Smoker & Company's Alternative Energy Seminar Receives High Praise From Attendees!

Our mission at Smoker & Company is to create and maintain the highest standards of quality in our profession, while consistently exceeding the expectation of our clients. The Smoker & Company seminars and business forums have adhered to this standard and have produced an outstanding reputation of offering a wide variety of important information and education for our clients.

On October 1, 2009, Smoker & Company's Alternative Energy Seminar was conducted at the Amish View Inn & Suites and featured presenters from both the PA Department of Environmental Protection and Smoker & Company. The seminar focused on the benefits of solar heating, as well as the tax advantages for both businesses and individuals. The seminar was very well-attended, and every exit survey rated the seminar a perfect 10 for both content and presentation.
